

OPEN CALL FOR ARTISTIC PROPOSALS FOR +AXIS FESTIVAL

“+axis” is a self-organized festival held for the last six years in honor and memory of Stelios Kyprianou, the founder and visionary of Synergeio theatre.

With “+axis” we aim to bring together artists from various fields, offering them the opportunity to express and experiment in a friendly and collaborative spirit.

We invite immersive artists or groups of artists from any art field to send their ideas regarding projects dealing with current issues and subjects concerning the local community. These ideas may be implemented in any form of art, e.g. theater, dance, performances, visual arts/installations, video screenings, etc. The invitation concerns new or existing projects.

Conditions:

- Proposals may concern new, existing or ongoing projects which will be presented as part of the festival, between October 19th and 20th, 2024 on Synergeios’ premises.
- The selection will be made by the festivals’ organizing team.
- The proposed projects should not exceed 60 minutes (excluding durational projects).
- Available spaces for presenting your work are the interior spaces of Synergeio - the stage, as well as the exterior spaces- the passage, and the EKA Parking area.

What is offered?

- The opportunity to present your work in a friendly and welcoming environment.
- Technical assistance and support.
- Use of our space for final rehearsals (after consultation on space availability).
- Promotion and advertising of your work.

- Fee (in agreement with the organization at a later stage).

Demands from the artists

- To be consistent in terms of the deadlines for submitting required information aimed at promoting your work.
- To advertise and promote your work on social media in addition to the advertising provided by “Ipogeia Skini”.
- To be able to work independently.

Applications must include the following information:

1. Name of artist / group.
2. Telephone number
3. Attached CV's or portfolios of the artists.
4. Links of previous works (if available).
5. Title and estimated duration of project.
6. Proposal description with reference to the concept behind it and how the artist aims to implement their idea (up to 200 words).

*Proposals must be submitted electronically to info@synergeio.org with the subject “+axis” / Application” no later than Sunday, August 25, 2024. Applicants will receive a response within a week from the deadline of submission.
